BAGILLT HERITAGE SOCIETY

The members of the Heritage Society were very disappointed to hear that the grant application that they had submitted to make improvements to the Cenotaph had been unsuccessful, but they will try again when further grant opportunities arise.

BAGILLT COMMUNITY GARDEN

The Community Garden is once again starting to look good. Pat has been very busy strimming and has made a path to access the fruit trees but is leaving the majority of the grassed area to grow as a meadow for wildlife and flowers. There are also some nut trees on their way.

Lynn Wakefield is also preparing for a new growing season and for the various groups' summer events. Lynn also runs a hugely successful Eco Club for the village children. For more information contact Brian Doleman; btdoleman@hotmail.co.uk

The bees have had a bad start this year due to the poor weather - cold and wet -which has had a big impact on honey production. We will have to hope for better weather from May through to August.

The group have to make alterations to our storage container. THERE IS NOTHING OF VALUE INSIDE. The big doors are awkward to open and we will stop using them. We are now looking to complete the wheel project for we which have received donations and for our group activities.
